

Chi-X Australia bolsters executive team with senior appointment

Stock Exchange Chi-X Australia is pleased to announce the appointment of John Williams to the newly created role of Deputy Chief Operating Officer, effective 1 February 2020.

Mr Williams joins Chi-X with over 20 years' experience working in the capital markets industry. Most recently John was Head of Admissions at the National Stock Exchange of Australia, where he led the development of an admissions strategy and technology solution from the ground-up while ensuring full alignment with regulatory requirements.

Prior to this, he held several key senior roles at the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) across ten years, including General Manager Listings Operations, Senior Manager Market Access, and Manager Clearing and Settlement Operations.

Commenting on the appointment, Chi-X Australia CEO Vic Jokovic said: "We are excited to welcome John to the Chi-X team. His deep knowledge of financial technology systems, infrastructure and strategy makes him a valuable addition to our management team."

Based in Sydney, Mr Williams will be responsible for execution of the organisation's day-to-day operational business strategy and commitment to excellent customer service.

Chi-X Australia plays a key role in the development and growth of Australian capital and investment markets through product innovation, which is delivering cost savings and deeper liquidity to investors.
