Weathering the storm

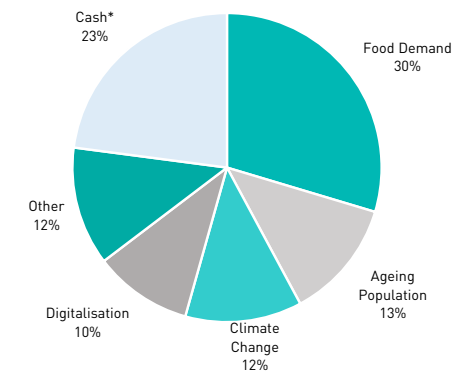

Markets have seen a period of enhanced volatility post the impact of the 'Liberation Day' tariffs which have potentially de-stabilised the trend of globalisation. Economies are battling now as to the real impact of tariffs on their long term growth prospects, whilst companies are facing earnings headwinds given the likelihood of earnings downgrades as the fear of a broader recession looms large. During this period of uncertainty, attention has moved away from equities to asset classes providing defensive characteristics. An often overlooked market segment is that of alternative assets, which encompass assets that fall outside traditional asset classes in stocks, bonds and cash. Assets here include real estate, infrastructure, commodities, private equity and venture capital amongst many more asset types. These assets are inherently less correlated to traditional asset classes, providing a point of diversification in more volatile or down markets however access to this asset class is often limited to institutional investors and is subject to lockups, creating liquidity concerns for investors. This illiquidity requires a risk premium paid to the investor resulting in alternatives exhibiting elevated risk adjusted returns. Whilst liquidity is often seen as the main limiting factor in alternative asset investment, WAM Alternative Assets Limited (WMA) addresses this by providing investors access to a hard-to-reach asset class through the simplicity of the LIC structure.

SOURCE: WMA AS AT 28 FEBRUARY 2025. *Includes funds held for capital commitments

WMA invests in a portfolio of alternative asset managers, designed to provide diversification by asset class and revenue exposure. In its investment process, the manager undergoes a research across investment themes and a manager selection process designed to exposure to emerging investment trends through alternative asset managers. Wilson Asset Management (WAM) was appointed as the manager of WMA's portfolio in October 2020, and since then the manager has materially decreased the funds trading discount, sustained an increase in LICs fully franked dividend and built up the company's profit reserve from 2.5 cps in October 2020 to 16.5 cps in February 2025. Since the appointment of WAM, the LIC has exited 12 investments at a weighted average premium of 35.5% to the NTA's carrying value reflecting a conservative valuation methodology amongst portfolio investments. The manager divides their allocation between defensive and growth assets, across investment themes. The largest of which is an allocation towards food demand via exposure to water rights, agriculture assets, private equity, infrastructure and private debt. A recent existed investment within this portfolio theme was an equity stake in Birch & Waite, a Sydney based food manufacturer and distributor. The position in company was held via WMA's investment in Fortitude Investment Partners with the investment exited at a 105% premium to its December 2023 carrying value, representing an internal rate of return (IRR) of more than 25%.

Currently WMA trades at a 17.8% discount to our Indicative NTA, whilst quoting a net running yield of 5.4% and a gross running yield of 7.7%.

Bell Potter's Indicative NTA tracks the 'indicative' movement of a LIC's underlying NTA each month by monitoring the percentage movements of the disclosed holdings, and using an index to track the movement of the remaining positions. We have also included an adjusted indicative NTA and adjusted discount, where applicable, which removes the LIC distribution from the ex-dividend date until the receipt of the new NTA post the payment date.
